

Here's the original photo from the Shorpy website— good-looking turn-of-the-century reefer car.

Full size for HO

I made an educated guess as to size and proportions and straightened the car sides out with the "distort" function in Photoshop.

I used the distorted side as a template for recreating the lettering in Adobe Illustrator.

Here's the final Illustrator file (grey background added for visibility).

